CUPA-HR Data Use Agreement

- All survey results are copyrighted by the College and University Professional Association for Human Resources (CUPA-HR). No data contained in a survey report or obtained through DataOnDemand (DOD) may be reproduced in any form for any purpose without the written consent of CUPA-HR. Report findings and conclusions may be appropriately cited/referenced in other reporting if there is proper acknowledgment of the source and the referenced material does not involve reproduction of data tables or graphics.
- DOD can be purchased only by higher education institutions. Due to the sensitive and confidential nature of the data we collect, we reserve the right to confirm an individual's authorization to purchase DOD with his or her HR department, and to confirm with HR that each user listed on the order is authorized to view employee data. Individuals outside of the HR department seeking access will need written approval from the head of HR — these include faculty, unions, other administrators, etc. CUPA-HR accepts no responsibility for any employee who misrepresents his or her authorization.
- Annual survey reports contain comprehensive tables of aggregated data and may be purchased by anyone. However, all points of this agreement apply to the use of this tabular data.
- Survey results may not be changed or modified. Results may not be misrepresented as to their source or intent.
- Survey results may not be used to solicit or conduct business. The sole exception is the use of consultants who are currently engaged in a project with a higher ed institution that has granted access to that institution's purchase of DOD. Consultants may use the obtained data in their business dealings with the purchasing institution only. Consultants cannot order DOD directly. They should ask the appropriate representative of the institution for which they are working to contact us — via research@cupahr.org — to request consultant access to DOD. The institution representative should furnish: (a) the consultant's name, company, address, e-mail, and phone number; (b) a statement that indicates the consultant has been hired to perform work requiring the use of CUPA-HR data; (c) authorization for the consultant to see the institution's data; and (d) the names of the surveys to which the consultant should be granted access.
- Survey results may not be uploaded to a separate system or placed on the web without the explicit permission of CUPA-HR.
- Access to survey reports and DOD is limited to the users purchasing the report or subscription. Sharing report information, log-in credentials, output from DOD analyses, or DOD access with other institutions or organizations will result in immediate cancellation of access and will preclude future access. The system tracks and monitors purchases, use, and users.
- An institution is defined as an entity which has as its sole purpose the provision of postsecondary education and reports to the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) hosted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES). Results must be purchased for each institution in which CUPA-HR data is used and may only be used for the institution for which the subscription was purchased. Results may not be shared with — or used for — institutions within a multi-institution system for which a DOD subscription or annual report has not been purchased. System offices, defined as any entity that oversees two or more institutions, may share or use data only with institutions in their system for which the data has been purchased.

Highlights

The following are highlighted results from the CUPA-HR 2019 Administrators in Higher Education Annual Report:

- Administrator salaries increased by 2.7% for the 2018-19 academic year. The highest raises went to senior institutional officers (2.8%), and the lowest went to top executives (2.0%) and associate/assistant deans (2.0%).
- Women continue to make up about half (51%) of all administrators, the same as last year, and the percentage of racial/ethnic minority administrators has risen slightly to 16% this year, up from 15% last year.
- Women make up nearly half (47%) of the five lowest-paid dean positions combined (each earning a median of $125K or less) and make up only one-fifth (20%) of the top five highest-paid dean positions combined (each earning a median of $249K or more).
- About two-thirds (65%) of associate/assistant deans also have faculty status, earning higher salaries than those without faculty status in all but seven disciplines.
- Some top administrative roles, such as Chief Diversity Officer, employ a large proportion of Black and Hispanic women (52%), whereas other positions, such as Chief Facilities Officer, are overwhelmingly occupied by White men (83%).
- Among academic deans, women of color are sometimes compensated much less than or much more than their White male counterparts, depending on their discipline.
- The median age for higher education administrators is 54 years old, and nearly 9 in 10 administrators are between the ages of 40 and 70.
- The number of institutions offering performance-based incentives increased this year, and fewer institutions are now offering deferred compensation as an executive benefit.

Introduction

This marks CUPA-HR's 52nd year of data collection on higher education administrators, the longest-running of CUPA-HR's surveys. The administrators survey collects data on salaries and demographics, and since 2016-17 has done so for each individual incumbent instead of in aggregate, allowing for more in-depth analysis and allowing more precise benchmarking than ever before. Data collected includes: salary, sex, race/ethnicity, age, years in position, and faculty status (for associate/assistant deans). Highlights of this salary and demographic data are included in this report.

Positions Surveyed

A total of 50,880 administrators were reported for this year's survey.[1] The 200 positions surveyed are grouped into six administrative categories:[2]

- Top Executive Officers
  - Includes Chief Executive Officer (Campus or System) and Executive Vice President/Vice Chancellor.
- Senior Institutional Officers
  - Persons in these positions direct a major functional area with institution-wide scope/impact as well as the work of other professional employees.
- Academic Deans
  - Persons with faculty status who serve as the principal administrator/head of an academic program, which may be a school, college, or department.
- Institutional Administrators
  - Persons in these positions direct a major functional area with institution-wide scope/impact as well as the work of other professional employees. They serve as the senior content expert in a recognized professional realm.
- Heads of Divisions, Departments, and Centers
  - Persons in these positions direct an institutionally recognized division, department, or center and the work of other professional employees.
- Academic Associate/Assistant Deans
  - Persons with or without faculty status who report to and support the dean in the administration of an institutional program, which may be a school, college, or department.

1 See the Methodology section of this report for more specific information on the sample and the data collected.

2 See the Administrators Survey Participation and Information Template (SPIT) for descriptions of all positions surveyed.

Participating Institution Characteristics

The information in Figure 1 summarizes the institutional characteristics of respondents to this year's Administrators in Higher Education Survey. A total of 1,174 institutions provided incumbent-level data for 50,880 administrators.[3] Institutions are well represented in this year's data by classification, affiliation, and region.

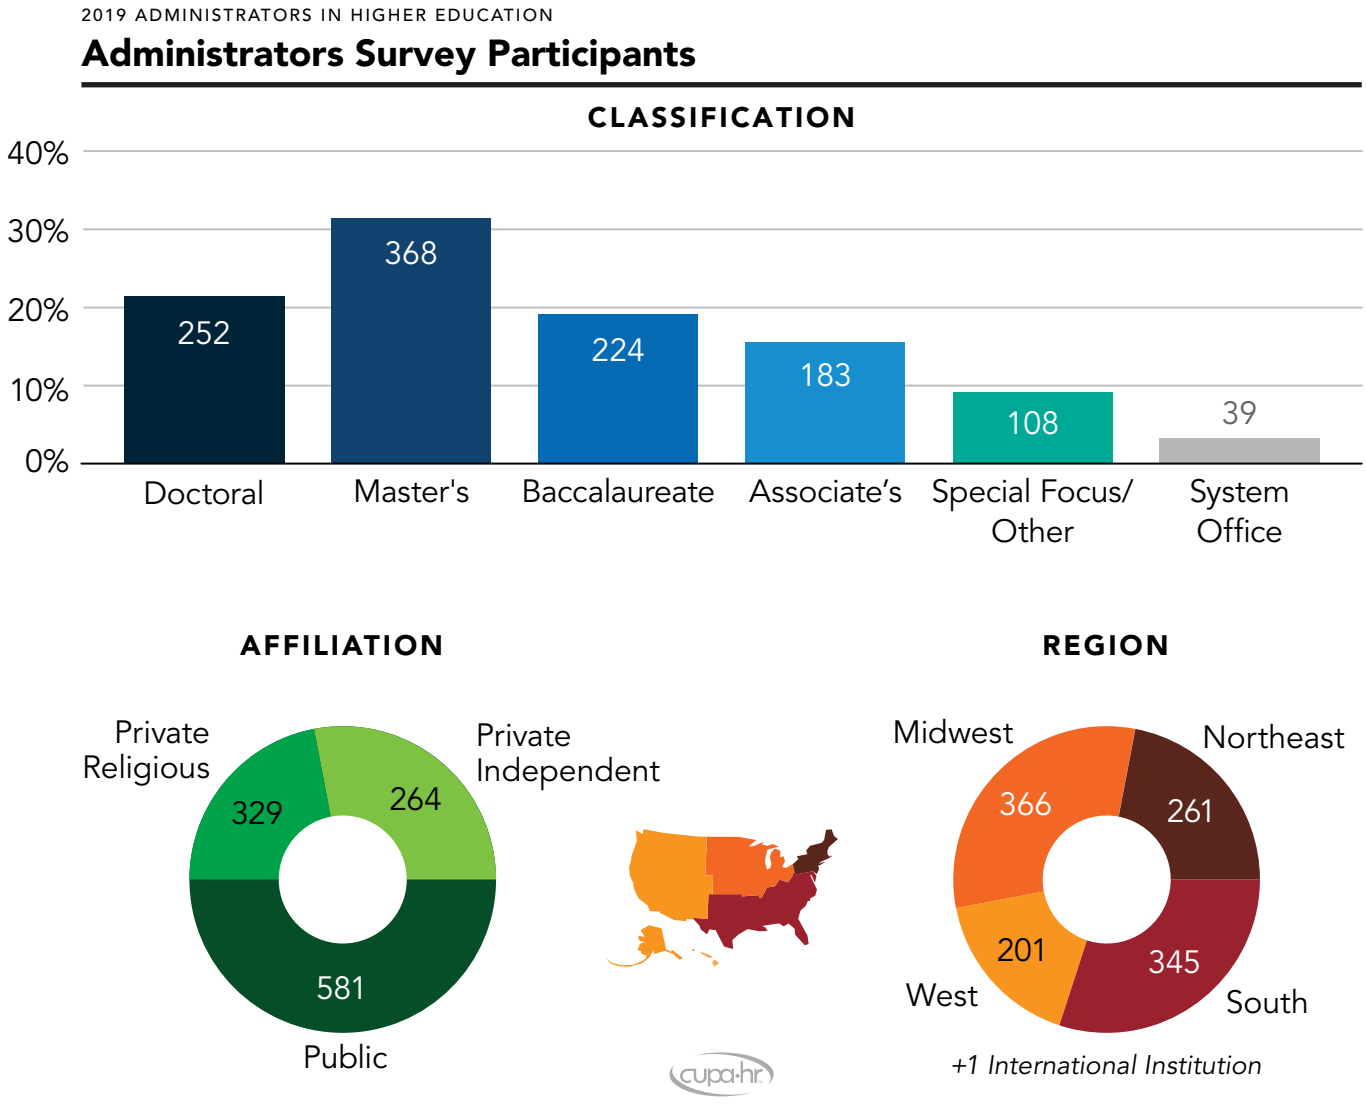

Figure 1

3 See Appendix B for a list of all participating institutions. System offices provided data for system-level positions, which are integrated into the analysis for this report. For-profit institutions, higher ed affiliates, and international institutions were excluded from the analysis. See the Methodology section for more detail on these exclusions.

Methodology

SURVEY

The data collection period for CUPA-HR's Administrators in Higher Education Survey ran from November 1, 2018 through January 18, 2019. The survey was conducted through Surveys Online.[4]

Administrator Positions

This year's survey includes data for 50,880 administrators.[5] For each administrator incumbent, the following data were collected:

- Annualized base salary (effective date November 1, 2018)
- Sex (optional)
- Race/ethnicity (optional)
- Year entered current position (optional)
- Birth year (optional)
- Whether the administrator has faculty status (for associate/assistant dean positions only)

Participants could either enter this data manually online for each incumbent or upload a file containing this data.

Institutional Characteristics

In addition, data on institutional characteristics were collected from all participants:[6]

- Total expenses reported to IPEDS in 2017-18
- Student enrollment (effective date approximately October 15, 2018)
- Faculty size (effective date November 1, 2018) and number of separations in the past year
- Staff size (effective date November 1, 2018) and number of separations in the past year
- Human resources staff size and number of separations in the past year
- CHRO reporting relationship
- Whether collective bargaining exists for the following groups:
  - Full-time faculty
  - Part-time or adjunct faculty
  - Full-time staff
  - Graduate students

4 Surveys Online is a product of Peerfocus.

5 This report analyzes data from 50,425 administrators, as data from for-profit institutions, non-U.S. institutions, and higher ed affiliates were excluded.

6 See the Administrators Survey Participation and Information Template (SPIT) for more specific information about the data collected on this year's survey, as well as the instructions provided to participants.

Basic information on total expenses as well as student, faculty, and staff size were required questions. All other questions were optional.

RESPONDENTS

Respondents were largely human resources professionals and institutional research professionals from higher education institutions in the U.S.[7] There were 1,174 institutions that completed the survey (Table 5). All participating institutions are listed in Appendix B.

7 For-profit institutions (n = 11), higher ed affiliates (n = 6), and international institutions (n = 1) were excluded from the analyses in this report. Although their data were not analyzed for this report, their data are available for benchmarking in DataOnDemand, and their names appear in the participant list in Appendix B. They are included as "Other" institutions in the table above.

Acknowledgments

CUPA-HR's Administrators in Higher Education Report provides data on salaries and demographic information for administrators employed in a cross-section of the nation's colleges and universities.

We are indebted to the human resources professionals and institutional research professionals of the colleges and universities who completed the survey.

In the CUPA-HR national office, our research department staff coordinated and reviewed all aspects of survey analysis and report production. To ensure the accuracy of data, the research staff conducted numerous outlier and validation checks with those responsible for completing the survey. Peerfocus, Inc., our partner and collaborator in Surveys Online, provided web-based data collection, automated validation checks, and table generation. This report was designed, reviewed, edited, and marketed by members of our research, communications, and executive teams, acknowledged below.

Appendix A. Comprehensive Tables

The salaries provided in these tables are annualized base salaries. The tables in this appendix report unweighted median salaries.[8] The median divides salaries in half: 50% of all reported salaries fall above or below this salary. The median is a more reliable measure than the mean (average) in distributions that are skewed (containing a few extremely low or — in the case of most salary data — high numbers).

Data are reported only for positions having at least five responding institutions.[9]

To compute the quartiles, the total expense/enrollment numbers reported by each institution were ranked from low to high, and one quarter of the institutions were assigned to each quartile. Quartile ranges are listed in the column headings of each applicable table.

Some of the tables also report salary data by percentile rank. To compute percentiles, each institution's average salary is counted once, ranked from low to high and then split at the following points:

- 20th percentile: 20% of all reported salaries are equal to or fall below this value
- 40th percentile: 40% of all reported salaries are equal to or fall below this value
- 50th percentile: 50% of all reported salaries are equal to or fall below this value
- 60th percentile: 60% of all reported salaries are equal to or fall below this value
- 80th percentile: 80% of all reported salaries are equal to or fall below this value

8 The tables in Appendix A provide a large-scope picture of administrator salaries. To benchmark salaries using custom comparison groups, or to view salaries by sex, race/ethnicity, age, or years in position, higher ed institutions should subscribe to DataOnDemand.

9 Both annual reports and DataOnDemand follow Department of Justice safe harbor guidelines for antitrust regulations. An explanation of these guidelines can be found here: http://compforce.typepad.com/compensation_force/2007/02/antitrust_regul.html.
